Eye check-up camp

(8th November 2024)

IIIT Delhi hosted a comprehensive eye check-up camp on 8th November 2024 at the H1 hostel building common room. The event was held from 11:00 am to 4:00 pm, offering students an opportunity to undergo eye examinations and receive professional consultations.

The camp was sponsored by the institute's medical insurance partner, ensuring that students could access these services at no cost. This initiative was part of the ongoing efforts to promote student health and well-being on campus. It aimed to raise awareness about eye health and provided an easy, accessible way for students to address any concerns regarding their vision. The event was well-received by students, with many taking advantage of the free consultation services.

The eye check-up camp included thorough screenings, advice on maintaining healthy vision, and guidance on proper eye care habits, addressing common issues such as screen time strain and eye fatigue. Students were also provided with information about affordable options for corrective eyewear if needed.

The Office of Student Affairs thanked all participants and expressed hope for future health-focused initiatives, encouraging students to take proactive steps towards maintaining their overall well-being.

Waves : BITS Goa

(8th-10th November, 2024)

The MUSE Club organized an exciting trip to Goa from 7th to 10th November 2024, where members represented IIIT Delhi at the prestigious BITS Goa fashion event. The club participated in ramp walks and showcased their talent, creativity, and fashion sense.

Our team had the opportunity to engage with students from various colleges, exchanging ideas and networking. The event provided a platform for our members to shine on stage, and the fashion club's participation highlighted IIIT Delhi's growing presence in cultural activities.

The trip not only offered a chance to display our skills but also allowed us to explore the beautiful campus of BITS Goa. It was an enriching experience that strengthened the bond among club members and inspired future collaborations.

The MUSE Club looks forward to more such opportunities to represent our college and showcase the diverse talents of our students

Roshnara'24: Ethnic Night

(12th November, 2024)

Roshnara'24, IIIT Delhi's most awaited Ethnic Night, took place in grand style, bringing together students for an unforgettable evening of cultural celebration. The event featured dazzling performances, delicious ethnic food, and fun-filled games, creating an atmosphere of excitement and unity.

The night was a true showcase of talent, with students donning their finest ethnic wear, ready to dance the night away. The event was exclusively for IIITD students, making it a memorable occasion that celebrated the diverse cultural spirit of the campus.

Roshnara'24 was a huge success, thanks to the hard work of the Cultural Council and the enthusiastic participation of students. It was an evening filled with energy, laughter, and a strong sense of communit

Introduction to IEEE

(5th November 2024)

IEEE IIIT-Delhi, the student branch of the world's largest technical organization, is committed to advancing technology for the benefit of humanity. On 5th November 2024, we hosted an engaging session where students had the opportunity to learn about the advantages of IEEE membership and explore how joining our student branch can provide access to valuable technical knowledge and research.

The event took place at A-007, R&D Block, from 4:30 PM to 5:30 PM, offering a platform for networking with IEEE professional members. With free refreshments for all attendees, it was a great chance to clarify doubts and get an introduction to IEEE.

Python In MultiVerse

25th November 2024)

On 25th November 2024, Python in Multiverse brought students an exciting glimpse into Python's immense versatility and transformative power. Held at LHC C101 from 4:00 P.M. to 6:00 P.M., the event showcased how Python transcends traditional programming to drive innovation across domains like data science, AI, robotics, and web development.

Students explored real-world applications of Python and discovered how it serves as a powerful tool to broaden career opportunities and solve complex challenges. Through interactive sessions and demonstrations, participants saw Python as more than just a language—it became a gateway to creativity and limitless possibilities.

The event inspired students to harness Python's potential to shape their futures and make an impact across industries. It was a day of learning, exploration, and unlocking new horizons.

Speed Proving Tournament - 16

(6th November 2024)

The Speed Proving Tournament - 16, held on 6th November 2024, was an electrifying event organized by our club. This unique competition challenged participants with medium-level Olympiad problems, combining strategy, speed, and skill. Contestants, either solo or in teams of two, raced to solve problems on whiteboards while others worked independently to prove their mettle.

The top three participants and honorable mentions earned prestigious club memberships, with the winners also taking home exciting cash prizes. The event fostered a spirit of collaboration and intellectual curiosity, making it a memorable experience for all.

Captured in these photos are moments of intense focus, innovative problem-solving, and well-deserved celebrations. SPT-16 continues to be a testament to our club's dedication to fostering mathematical excellence and camaraderie. Stay tuned for more such exciting challenges!
