

Advertisement for Resident Doctor Position

Job title	Resident Doctor
Reports to	The Dean of Student Affairs
No. of Positions Available	01 (one)

The IIIT-Delhi is a State University of Government of National Territory of Delhi located at Okhla Industrial Estate, Phase-III, New Delhi. The Institute is looking for a Resident Doctor for its Infirmary.

Qualification

Essential: MBBS degree with valid registration. The candidate with some clinical experience will be preferred.

Duties and responsibilities

As a Resident Doctor at the Institute, you will be providing free medical consultation and clinical support to all types of employees including their families and students of the Institute at the Infirmary. You shall be available for exigencies during the night beyond normal duty hours. This includes attending minor casualty calls and referring major casualty calls to the nearest/empaneled hospital/s and assisting and advising to the Institute Authority/ies in purchase of medicines and items required at the Infirmary on day-to-day basis. The Deanery of Student Affairs shall be reporting to the administrative unit for you and the OPD timings and other terms and conditions of this offer may be mutually discussed and agreed with the Dean (SA).

Compensation & Terms

For this position, the Institute will be paying you a consolidated salary of up to Rs 1,00,000/- per month depending upon experience. In addition, free accommodation in the Married Hostel will also be provided.

The appointment on this post will be purely temporary and contractual for an initial period of one year only. The term may be considered for extension up to 3 years based on performance and the requirement at the Institute.

Further, the written notice period for the above tenure will be two months or salary in lieu thereof by either side at the discretion of the Institute.

How to apply

Interested candidates can share their Resume over email with subject line" Application for the post of Resident Doctor at admin-hr@iiitd.ac.in latest by 7th March 2023. Shortlisted candidates will be informed via email for further selection process.